

American Association of Budget and Program Analysts

AABPA members are government budget and program managers and analysts, academic specialists, and analysts in the private sector. AABPA organizes symposia, free monthly programs, a quarterly newsletter and journal, and annual receptions to help our members keep up with the latest developments in their field, establish and maintain valuable contacts, and sharpen the skills and knowledge they need to enhance their careers.

As part of the Speakers' Bureau, AABPA will award a free 1-year membership to a member of the audience for today's speaker. To register for this drawing, please visit our website at www.aapba.org. Please enter code #xxxx

Advantages of Membership:

- Enlightening panels and roundtable discussions and prominent speakers at the spring and fall symposia
- Monthly informative program meetings
- Professional career development opportunities and social networking events throughout the year
- Research roundtable discussions
- Federal budget experts' speakers bureau
- Practitioner-academic collaborative opportunities
- Annual James Blum award and member service awards
- Access to members' publications
- Opportunity to serve on committees with other career professionals and academics

Special benefits for students...

- Annual membership dues of only $15
- Opportunity to be a student reporter at the spring or fall Symposium
- Summer intern program
- Graduate student research paper competition
- University sponsorship opportunities

For more information, please visit our website at www.aapba.org